Frequently asked questions

before choosing a customized itinerary

Will You Book Everything for me?

No — and that's intentional.

I don't book flights, hotels, or activities on your behalf. Instead, I create a fully customized itinerary with direct booking links so you stay in control of your reservations, payments, and loyalty points.

This keeps the process:

- Faster
- More affordable
- More flexible
- Less sales-driven

You get expert planning without being locked into one provider.

How Long Does This Process Take?

Most itineraries are delivered within 7–14 days, depending on trip length and complexity.

Here's what the process looks like:

- Submit Interest Form
- Pay planning fee & provide trip details
- Receive your detailed itinerary
- One round of revisions (if needed)
- No unnecessary calls or drawn-out back-and-forth

It's streamlined, efficient, and designed for busy people.

How Is This Different Than Using AI Tools?

AI tools are great for ideas, but they don't understand:

- Your PTO limits
- Real-world travel timing and logistics
- What's actually doable in a single day

There's a big difference between something that "sounds good" and something that actually works in real life.

Your itinerary is:

- Human-designed
- Based on real travel experience
- Thought through for pacing, energy, and enjoyment

This is planning that feels realistic AND actually fits your life.

How Much Does This Cost?

Weekend Itineraries start at $150, and bucket list vacays start at $250 (for 7 days).

This fee is nonrefundable, but you will have access to the itinerary forever and FULL control over what hotels and activities you book.

I will also do my best to create an itinerary that is completely in your budget (with the planning fee included).
